FENICE is a social cooperative (no profit) with head office in Palermo. Since 1996 it manages a series of projects addressed to young people (aged between 1 and 25 years old); young people with several kind of disadvantages and facing socio-economic problems.

The focus of the numerous projects managed by FENICE, usually in partnership with public and private companies, from one hand regard the non formal education methods, from the other hand try to support young people attending schools in facing with their social problems. In this way, FENICE, works where school can't arrive. In the Italian Education system is not easy to find public school with support system created for young people and aimed at help them during their school life (for ex: support systems able to help students with economic problems, or with drug problems, or victims of physical/sexual abuses).
